GRAPHICS.
Dr. Carter dentist, South side.

Mr. JOHN MILLER, of Greencastle, was in Kirksville, Wednesday.

Prof. Wm. Hartford, of St. Edwards, Neb., was in town Tuesday and Wednesday, looking after the wants of the school commissioner's office.

All contributions for W. H. Thornton, whose house was destroyed by fire last week, should be left at the store of Jonas Caskey.

WM. HODGE, of this place, was granted an increase of pension December 27. It came a little late for a Christmas gift but is acceptable just the same.

Snow began falling heavily about 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and at the hour of going to press is still coming down with out any sign of abating.

More rain fell Wednesday night and Thursday morning in this vicinity, than has fallen for a year. There will be no shortage in the water supply for sometime to come.

A house in Clay township owned by Chas. Cole of this city, was burned last Friday. It was occupied by Jas. Brown. Nearly all of his household goods were saved. There was no insurance on building.

The Eastern Star banquet at the Ivy House last Saturday evening was an elegant affair. There were sixty-eight plates, and the menu was the surprise and delight of all that sat at the table. Notwithstanding the orchestra furnished delightful music and dancing was engaged in until 12 o'clock.

Frank and Harry Bass were both injured by a small circular saw used in their workshop, Monday morning. While working at the table the saw caught Frank's thumb almost cutting it off. He came to Dr. Goben's office and before the doctor had dressed his hand his brother Henry, who had taken up the work at the table, had the index finger of the right hand almost torn off by the same saw.

Christmas Eve Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sheeks were caused to celebrate, unexpectedly, the fiftieth anniversary of their wedded life. About 6 o'clock the old friends and neighbors of the city and neighborhood surprised them by assembling at the family residence with well-filled baskets, and accompanied by a minister. The feast was spread and the minister, Rev. W. L. Fletcher pronounced the marriage service which recalled the sacred vows of fifty years ago. The presents were numerous, among them a fine gold mounted cane for Mr. Sheeks.

Mr. Chas. Patterson, proprietor of the Kirksville nurseries, and one of the widely known men of the county, was stricken with paralysis while at the supper table, Saturday evening. He had just returned from town, and before sitting down complained of dizziness. While eating he dropped his knife twice, and complained of numbness of the right arm. He continued the meal, however, and when it was finished attempted to rise from the table, but was unable to do so. He was assisted to bed and Dr. Martin was summoned, who pronounced the case one of paralysis with little hope of recovery. He grew weaker constantly and the stupor deepened until Tuesday evening when he expired. The funeral took place from the family residence at 10 o'clock Thursday morning.

MR. B. F. STROCK and wife, who had been visiting the family of their brother, M. F. Strock, of Brashear, left for their home, Huntingdon, Ind., Monday night.

Our foreman, Mr. Geo. Quintal, will spend a few days at his old home in Kirksville, Mo., with his mother and old-time associates and boyhood friends. George is a thorough master of the "art-preservative," and a faithful employee.—Centerville, (Ia.) Citizen.

On Christmas day while the old folks were seated round a crackling fire, sixty-four neighbors and friends of N. B. Hatfield marched in on them unexpectedly and with many nice presents and good things to eat, announced that they would take possession of the house for a short time. It was the 79th Christmas of their honored host and hostess, but it would be putting it mildly to say that Christmas dinner in the whole seventy-nine years, never gave them greater enjoyment.

BORN.

GRASSLE—To the wife of Mr. Geo. Grassle, Dec. 30, a son, weight 9 pounds.

KENT—To the wife of Mr. Elmore Kent, Dec. 29, a girl, weight 10 pounds.

Christmas passed off very quietly. There was an entertainment at the M. E. church, south, which was well attended and was a success.

Your correspondent received an "egg" as a present from the "tree" which seemed to be neither a hen egg nor a goose egg. It seemed to be a mugwump.

The boys gave an entertainment at the residence of Mr. Dan Crawford on Christmas night for the benefit of Mr. and Mrs. John Riley. After a long and continued effort on the part of the boys Mr. Riley "set em up" and the boys went home.

Is it not about time the democratic papers let up a little on the taftsy business with the farmers. The wonderful sympathy which they are showing the farmers, is, no doubt, appreciated by them but the average farmer probably knows his own business about as well as the average democratic editor. Give us a rest on this taftsy business.

Married on Christmas day by Rev. Clark in Brashear, Mr. John Riley and Miss Nettie Crawford. The groom is one of Adair county's bright young farmers, who has grown up in this community and who has a host of friends, all of whom congratulate him on this occasion. The bride, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Crawford, is one of Adair county's most lovely young ladies, whom to know is to love and admire. We congratulate these worthy young people upon the consummation of "loves young dream." May they live long and happy is the wish of yours truly.

Experience is a costly school, but that is how R. M. Buckmaster learned to make a success of the restaurant business. Call and see him at the Palace.

Our Heart-Felt Thanks.

We have been in Kirksville one year, one month and fifteen days and we have this to say to the people of Adair county and city of Kirksville: We feel truly grateful for the liberal patronage you have given us in the length of time and as we enter upon another year's business in your midst we have no uncollected accounts to place before you for payment and during our business experience of the last year we placed on our goods what we believed to be a fair, legitimate profit and have treated all alike as far as we now know and have made no enemies we know of and we hope many friends. Our expectations upon our opening business in your county and city has been far surpassed having done a larger volume of cash business than we were told was possible to be done for cash in your midst.

Many persons have traded with us from our first opening until the present time and many others have expressed themselves to us that after the first of the year when they have paid their last year's grocery bill our way of doing business would be theirs and they would be customers of ours henceforth and as long as we adhered strictly to our motto CASH IN HAND PLAN.

We have customers who would not buy one dollar's worth of goods from us if they thought we were making fish of one and flesh of another.

Now again thanking you for so liberally patronizing us the last year we can only promise you to do as we believe is our duty towards you the coming year, and that is to pay the HIGHEST PRICE IN CASH for all country produce and sell our groceries, provisions, glass and queensware at the lowest possible price, affording us a reasonable margin for doing same.

Wishing you a happy and prosperous year in Eighteen Hundred and Ninety One, we remain truly your servants.

For Cash only, SIGLER BROTHERS.

Last Call.

All persons knowing themselves indebted by note or account to Geo. D. Coe, or the firm of Coe & Sparling, or to G. A. Sparling will please call and settle and save him the cost.

G. A. SPARLING.

Notice.

R. M. Buckmaster has bought the Palace Restaurant, known as the old Maynard stand south of the southwest corner of the square. The interior of the building will be handsomely fitted up and contents thoroughly cleaned and everything usually found in a first class restaurant will be kept in stock.

Go to Grant Corbin & Co's. and get J. C. Maynard's cough candy and cough no more.

A NEW BUSINESS!!!

A NEW FIRM.

Foster, Hardin & Co. have just commenced in the pork packing business at the Brewery building, west of the square, across the railroad. Parties will do well to see them before selling their hogs. They will keep on sale at the Parlor Meat Market, east of the southeast corner of the square, all kinds of fresh meats, especially ribs, backbones, sausage, etc. Build up home by encouraging home enterprise.

Look Out

For the best bread you ever saw at the Palace Restaurant. The celebrated Pillsbury Flour and the best baker in the state is what talks. R. M. BUCKMASTER.

A New Year Greeting.

To our friends and customers we wish to extend our thanks for your generous patronage during the year just closed. We believe we have saved you money, and we made it possible for us to sustain ourselves. We commenced business last year in a new location, competition was close and many predicted failure, but thanks to honest men and women we are still "on deck" and promise better service than ever for 1891.
